KIM KAMIN DEBUTS BOOK: ESTATE PLANNING FOR MODERN FAMILIES

CHICAGO, IL, February 1, 2017 — The National Underwriter Company, a division of ALM Media, LLC, recently introduced a book titled The Tools & Techniques of Estate Planning for Modern Families, which was designed and created by Gresham Partners' Chief Wealth Strategist, Kim Kamin. The book is part of Steven Leimberg's Tools and Techniques series. Ms. Kamin co-edited the book with Wendy Goffe, Esq. of Seattle, and she recruited a number of contributing authors, including from academia and the Private Client & Wealth Management Department of McDermott Will & Emery, to draft chapters pertaining to their areas of expertise. The chapters cover the following very timely topics: (1) Planning for All Modern Families; (2) Planning for Divorce; (3) Planning for Blended Families; (4) Planning for International Couples; (5) Planning for Unmarried Couples and Cohabitation Agreements; (6) Planning for Same-Sex Married Couples; (7) Planning for Transgender Family Members; (8) Planning for Adoption and Non-Marital Children; (9) Planning for Assisted Reproductive Technology; (10) Planning for Supplemental Needs; (11) Planning for Longer Lives: Retirement and Later Life Issues; (12) Planning for Longer Lives: Fading Capacity; and, (13) Planning for Digital Assets.

The book can be ordered online at: <https://www.nationalunderwriter.com/the-tools-techniques-of-estate-planning-for-modern-families-2nd-edition-epub-bundle.html>
