

Amber Stewart

Partner & Advisor

As a Partner and Advisor at Gresham, Amber is responsible for providing integrated wealth management services solutions to a select group of clients, many of which include multiple generations.

Since joining Gresham in 2011, Amber has provided clients with extensive estate, wealth transfer, and philanthropic planning advice to help them achieve their long-term financial and charitable goals. Amber also helps clients navigate key life events and focuses on next-generation education, with a particular emphasis on supporting ultra-high-net-worth women and their families.

Prior to joining Gresham, Amber spent seven years at J.P. Morgan Private Bank as a client service associate. She primarily worked with business owners and law firm partners, assisting them with various banking, lending, trust and estate, and investment needs.

Outside of work, Amber enjoys live music, particularly outdoor concerts and festivals. Each year, she travels to New Orleans for the New Orleans Jazz & Heritage Festival with close friends. Amber also attends barre classes several times per week and has completed more than 1,300 workouts.

CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™

EDUCATION BACKGROUND

- B.A., Psychology, DePauw University
- M.S., Wealth Management, DePaul University

May not be reproduced or distributed without permission.