Gresham

Emily Reinke

Assistant Vice President, Custody Operations

As Assistant Vice President of Custody Operations at Gresham, Emily Reinke supervises the Client Service Analyst Team, guiding them in their direct collaboration with Associates to fulfill the operational requirements of our clients, their accounts, and investment transactions.

Emily Reinke joined Gresham in 2017 as one of the company's first Client Service Analysts. She now serves as the AVP of Custody Operations. Her responsibilities include overseeing the setup and maintenance of client accounts, processing investment transactions, reconciling accounts, facilitating asset transfers, managing subscription and withdrawal paperwork for Gresham investments, and providing comprehensive support for former clients and their investment/reporting needs.

Prior to Gresham, Emily attended Iowa State University where she studied Finance and Statistics.

When Emily is not jet-setting to a new destination, you can find her testing her culinary skills with a new recipe or tending to her cherished houseplants.
