Gresham

Irene Zhang

Investment Director

As an Investment Director at Gresham, Irene focuses on private market investment strategies including buyout, growth, venture, and private real assets.

Irene joined Gresham in 2020. She works closely with other members of the Investment Team to evaluate and select external managers, monitor their performance, and develop investment strategies. Her primary responsibilities include sourcing, manager selection, research, and portfolio monitoring.

Prior to joining Gresham, Irene worked in PwC's Deals practice, advising Fortune 500 clients on how to navigate complex accounting issues during M&A transactions.

Outside of work, Irene enjoys music festivals, travel, playing Catan and other board games, and good food.
