

Jenna Steinmetz

Investment Analyst

As an Investment Analyst for the Public Market Team, Jenna conducts comprehensive research and maintains analytical platforms that support the team's investment decisions.

Jenna joined Gresham in March 2024 as an Investment Operations Analyst assisting with the accounting and valuation of our partnerships. Her current role focuses on conducting manager research and due diligence, monitoring portfolio performance, and providing analytical insights on investments and market trends.

Prior to joining Gresham, Jenna worked at U.S. Bank as a Fund Accounting and Operations Assistant Manager.

Outside of work, Jenna enjoys cheering on Wisconsin sports teams, attending HYROX competitions, and going to live music events.
