

Leisa Storbeck

Partner, Chief Client Officer

As Chief Client Officer, Leisa oversees the firm's Client Service Team to ensure that the delivery of the firm's services is consistent across all clients and of the highest quality.

Leisa joined Gresham in 2005. As Partner and member of Gresham's Operating Committee, she works alongside the Chief Executive Officer, President, and Chief Human Resources Officer to shape the firm's direction, nurture its culture, and manage overall operations. She is also responsible for developing team members and ensuring that they continue to expand their knowledge and capabilities.

Prior to Gresham, Leisa worked at Deloitte where she advised corporate executives and private business owners.

Outside of work, Leisa enjoys running half marathons, improving her skill at platform tennis and striving to create "Atomic Habits".
