Gresham

Sean Warrington

Partner & Head of Private Investments

As Head of Private Investments, Sean seeks to build portfolios of world-class private equity and real asset managers.

Sean joined Gresham in 2019 and leads the private investment program, overseeing investments across venture capital, private equity, and real assets. He is a senior member of Gresham's Investment Team, serves on the firm's Investment Committee, and is responsible for identifying exceptional investment managers, evaluating new opportunities, and building long-term private market portfolios on behalf of Gresham's clients.

Prior to joining Gresham, Sean served as co-head of the Private Investment Program at the Alfred I. duPont Charitable Trust, a $6.5 billion foundation based in Jacksonville, Florida, where he helped oversee the organization's private investment portfolio.

Outside of work, Sean enjoys traveling in search of independent artisans, architecture, and design. He is an avid reader of both classic literature and science fiction and is always looking for the next great coffee shop while exploring a new city.
