

Yasmarie Diaz

Administrative Assistant

As an Administrative Assistant at Gresham, Yasmarie is responsible for providing support throughout the firm from projects, scheduling travel, and production of materials. Yasmarie also provides backup coverage across the administrative team.

Yasmarie joined Gresham in 2024 and her role involves assisting in tasks across the firm including production of materials, providing support within the administrative team, expense reporting, aiding with travel arrangements, and other projects within the firm.

Prior to Gresham, Yasmarie was an E-Commerce Coordinator for Crossover Studios, a marketing agency specializing in brand development.

Outside of work, Yasmarie is a passionate yoga practitioner and received her yoga teaching certification in May of 2024. She also is an avid foodie and is always looking to expand her gastronomical palate and try new foods.
