

Gresham Partners Ranked #4 In Barron's 2018 Top 100 Independent RIAs

CHICAGO – October 11, 2018 – Gresham Partners, an independent investment and wealth management firm, has been ranked #4 in Barron's 2018 Top 100 Independent RIAs. Gresham moved up to the #4 ranking from #9 in 2017 and #13 in 2016.

The Barron's ranking is based on a 94-question survey that asks firms about the size and growth of their business, their ownership and staffing structure, the services they provide and their mission. Rankings are based on multiple factors and calculations that focus on quality of practice, assets and revenue.

Investment performance is not an explicit criterion and the rankings are not based on information about actual client experience and should not be considered indicative of the future performance of Gresham or the advisory services it provides.
