Kim Kamin Recognized for Her Leadership in the Francis W. Parker School Alumni Association

Kim Kamin was honored by Francis W. Parker School Alumni Association on June 5, 2014 for her 15 years of leadership. The Chicago Alumni and Friends Event hosted at Leonard Goodman's home honored Ms. Kamin, outgoing Alumni Association president and a dedicated leader in the group, which seeks to actively engage the alumni community and promote lifelong relationships with one another and with the school.

Ms. Kamin is a Principal at Gresham Partners, LLC where she serves as Chief Wealth Strategist and a Client Advisor. She helps lead Gresham's development and implementation of estate, wealth transfer, philanthropic and fiduciary planning activities, and advises clients. Ms. Kamin is also actively involved with various professional organizations and writes and speaks on topics related to wealth planning and management.

Francis W. Parker School is an independent school in Chicago that serves students from junior kindergarten through high school. The school, based on the educational philosophies of John Dewey and Colonel Francis Wayland Parker, emphasizes education for character, community and citizenship.
