Attorney-Client Privilege in a Team Environment

National Association of Estate Planning Council - Webinar
Chicago, IL
July 10, 2019

Kim Kamin, Chief Wealth Strategist at Gresham Partners, LLC, co-presented in a live webinar with David C. Blickenstaff of Schiff Hardin LLP, on Attorney-Client Privilege in a Team Environment, which was broadcast on July 10, 2019.

Clients may assume that communications about their estate plans will remain confidential regardless of who is involved; but privilege doesn't apply to all communications and can be easily waived, putting both client and attorney at risk. This program examined privilege in the estate planning context, distinguished the work product doctrine, and particularly focused on communications involving multiple members of the estate planning team.
